Your 2027-28 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. The law says that before awarding Federal Student Aid, we must ask you to confirm the information you reported on your FAFSA. There are several ways an institution may verify a student's identity. Complete this section if the student is selected for V4 or V5 identity verification for the 2027-2028 award year. Note: To complete V4 or V5 identity verification, a student must present an unexpired, valid, government-issued photo identification such as a U.S. passport, a driver's license, or other state-issued ID.
