Federal Laws

The criminal offenses most commonly charged under the Federal Controlled Substances Act are the knowing, intentional and unauthorized manufacture, distribution or dispensing of any controlled substance, or the possession of any controlled substance with the intent to manufacture, distribute, or dispense. Federal law also prohibits the knowing, intentional and unauthorized creation, distribution, dispensing, or possession with the intent to distribute or dispense a "counterfeit substance." Simple possession without necessarily intent to distribute is also forbidden by Federal law and carries a penalty of imprisonment. Attempts and/or conspiracies to distribute or possess with intent to distribute a controlled substance are crimes under Federal law. Specific drug crimes that may carry greater penalties include the following:

- The distribution of narcotics to persons under 21;
- The distribution or manufacturing of narcotics near schools and colleges;
- The employment of juveniles under the age of 18 in drug trafficking operations;
- The distribution of controlled substances to pregnant women. The penalties for violating Federal narcotics statutes vary. The penalties may be more severe based upon two principal factors:
- The type of drug involved; and

- The quantity of the drug involved. With the exception of simple possession charges which result in up to one year imprisonment, maximum penalties for narcotic violations range from 20 years to life in prison. Certain violations carry mandatory minimum prison sentences of either five years or ten years. Harsher penalties will be imposed if a firearm is used in the commission of a drug offense. If a drug offense results in death or serious bodily injury to an individual who uses the drug involved, the penalties are harsher. Anabolic steroids are controlled substances and distribution or possession with intent to distribute carries a sentence of up to five years and a $250,000 fine

An extensive outline of federal laws regarding the Controlled Substances Act laws, penalties, and enforcement can be found online at: <http://www.deadiversion.usdoj.gov/21cfr/21usc/>
Select parts of the law are shared below.

Federal Law Penalties

Federal law prohibits the possession, use, or distribution of illicit drugs. Strict penalties are provided for drug convictions, including mandatory prison terms for many offenses. The following information, although not complete, is an overview of federal penalties for first convictions. All penalties are doubled for any subsequent drug conviction.

- a. Denial of Federal Benefits (21USC§862) – A federal or State drug conviction may result in the loss of federal benefits, including school loans, grants, contracts, and licenses provided by an agency of the U.S. or by appropriated funds of the U.S. Federal or State drug distribution convictions may result in denial of federal benefits for up to 5 years for a first conviction, up to 10 years for a second conviction, and a permanent denial of federal benefits for a third conviction. Federal or State drug convictions for possession may result in denial of federal benefits for up to 1 year for a first conviction and up to 5 years for subsequent convictions.
- b. Forfeiture of Personal Property and Real Estate - Any person convicted of a federal drug offense punishable by more than 1 year in prison shall forfeit to the United States any personal or real property related to the violation, including houses, cars, and other personal belongings. A warrant of seizure may be issued and property seized at the time an individual is arrested on charges that may result in forfeiture.
- c. Federal Drug Trafficking Penalties (21USC§841) - Penalties for federal drug trafficking convictions vary according to the quantity of the controlled substance involved in the transaction. Penalties for subsequent convictions are more severe. If death or serious bodily injury results from the use of a controlled substance that has been illegally distributed, the person convicted on federal drug charges of distributing the substance faces a mandatory prison sentence and fines ranging up to $8 million. For more information about possible fines and terms of imprisonment for violations, please see: <https://www.fas.org/sgp/crs/misc/RL30722.pdf>

Persons convicted on federal charges of drug trafficking within 1,000 feet of a public or private elementary, vocational or secondary school or a public or private college, junior college or university (21USC§860) face penalties of prison terms and fines which are twice as high as the regular penalties for the offense, with a mandatory prison sentence of at least one (1) year for the first offense, unless the offense involves 5 grams or less of marijuana.

- d. Federal Drug Possession Penalties (21USC §844) - Persons convicted on federal charges of knowingly or intentionally possessing any controlled substance without a valid prescription face penalties of up to one (1) year in prison and a mandatory fine of no less than $1,000. Second convictions are punishable by not less than 15 days but not more than 2 years in prison and a minimum fine of $2,500. Subsequent convictions are punishable by not less than 90 days but not more than 3 years in prison and a minimum fine of $5,000. However, notwithstanding those penalties, a person convicted under this section for possession of flunitrazepam shall be imprisoned for not more than 3 years in addition to the payment of a money fine. If death or serious injury results the imprisonment may be life but shall not be less than 20 years with an additional penalty of a money fine of up to $1 million (21USC§841).
- e. Special sentencing provisions for possession of crack cocaine impose a mandatory prison term of not less than 5 years but not more than 20 years and a fine of up to $250,000, or both if:
 - i. it is a first conviction and the amount of crack possessed exceeds 5 grams;
 - ii. it is a second conviction and the amount of crack;
 - iii. possessed exceeds 3 grams; it is a third or subsequent crack conviction and the amount exceeds 1 gram.
- f. Civil penalties of up to $10,000 may also be imposed for possession of small amounts of controlled substances, whether or not criminal prosecution is pursued.

Residence Life Policies and Regulations

<http://catalogs.saintpeters.edu/handbook/residencelifepoliciesandregulations/#alcohol>

Alcohol and Controlled Substances

All residents must abide by the University's policies on Alcohol and Controlled Substances, as found in the University Policies and Procedures section of the Student Handbook. The misuse of alcohol or any other chemical substance is inconsistent with the mission of Residence Life and jeopardizes the welfare of its students. Knowledge of the presence, location, use, or intent to exercise control over alcohol and illegal drugs will constitute constructive possession. Violation of these policies will result in the disposal and/or confiscation of the alcohol and/or illegal drugs in presence of student(s), documentation, a meeting with the appropriate judicial officer, and appropriate sanctions as described in the Student Conduct and Judicial System.

The Office of Residence Life urges residents to confront the misuse of alcohol or other drugs by seeking appropriate assistance. The Center for Personal Development offers substance abuse counseling and referrals in a confidential environment. The regulations below apply to the possession, use, and/or consumption of alcohol and illegal drugs in the residence halls.

- Alcohol alternative activities through the Student Life and Development; Proactive and situational programming in the residence halls;
- Resident Assistants (RA) and Community Directors (CD) have educational discussions regarding alcohol use and policy when conducting floor meetings;
- Student conduct meetings are opportunities for hearing officers to provide education and affects of alcohol and other drug use;
- Alcohol Awareness Presentations (Freshman Orientation, Athletics Orientations, Alcohol Awareness Week, etc.);
- Assessment, evaluation, and coordination of substance abuse prevention and education, early intervention and assessment initiatives at the Center for Personal Development: Saint Peter Hall, 2nd Floor; 201-761-6420;

The use and abuse of alcohol and/or illegal controlled substance may impair the ability of its employees to perform their jobs and may also result in the potential for accidents and/or other hazards with-in the course of their work.

The use, possession, transfer, possession for sale, sale, purchase, manufacture, possession for distribution, distribution, possession for dispensation, dispensation, solicitation and/or being under the influence of any illegal controlled substance, intoxicant or alcohol, while on or off the University's premises during working hours and/or in the pursuit of any University-related business, including but not limited to the operation of any motorized vehicle, is strictly prohibited. Controlled substances include, but are not limited to, illegal drugs, such as marijuana, heroin, cocaine, crack, MDMA (Ecstasy), GHB, Ketamine, and Rohypnol. This policy also covers the distribution of prescription drugs including Oxycodon, Vicadin, and Ritalin for use other than as prescribed. The use of these or any other substances for the purpose of altering perceptions and/or motor abilities is a violation of University policy.

Off duty possession or use of illegal drugs (controlled dangerous substances), or the illegal consumption of alcohol is prohibited. These principals include the possession and/or use of illegal drugs (controlled dangerous substances) or being under the influence of alcohol resulting in the arrest of the employee during working or non-working hours. Permission for an employee to serve and/or consume alcohol at any campus activity and/or event must be obtained from executive administration.

Subject to applicable state and local laws, drug and alcohol tests, if and when necessary, will be administered under the following conditions:

1. When an employee shows signs of impairment on the job and, thus, the University has a reasonable suspicion that the employee is under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance; or
2. After any accident or occurrence that results in an injury on the job, or any vehicular accident during work time when it appears that the employee caused the accident or might have reasonably avoided the accident, or minimized the consequences, but did not do so. Affected employees who are involved in an accident/incident during work time must submit to a drug test as soon as possible after the accident, but no later than 32 hours later. Affected employees who are involved in a reportable accident/incident during work time must submit to an alcohol test as soon as possible after the accident, but no later than 2 hours after the accident.

Employees who are seriously injured in an accident/incident during work time, and so cannot be tested at that time, must later provide the necessary authorization for obtaining hospital reports and other documents that indicate whether there were illegal drugs or alcohol in their system; or

3. Randomly if the employee serves in a safety-sensitive position (one that the job responsibilities involve public safety or the safety of others).

If an employee refuses or otherwise fails to submit to a drug and/or alcohol test, such shall constitute a positive test result, and the employee will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

Employees with questions or concerns about substance dependency or abuse are encouraged to discuss these matters with the University's Center for Personal Development to receive assistance or referrals to appropriate resources in the community. Employees with questions on this policy or issues related to drug or alcohol use in the workplace should raise their concerns with the Director of Human Resources without fear of reprisal.

Exceptions: The only acceptable exceptions to these rules and regulations are: (1) the use of over-the-counter medications prescribed to the employee in strict compliance with the product's description and/or the written direction of a licensed physician; (2) the use of prescription medication prescribed to the employee in strict compliance with the product's description and/or the written directions of a licensed physician; and (3) when the use of any of the aforementioned medications and/or substances does not interfere with or impair the employee's ability to perform their duties and maintain the normal and regular course of conduct and business being pursued and/or maintained by the University. Any employee using a prescription drug according to a physician's instructions or using an over-the-counter drug for medicinal purposes should, in the event such a drug would impair his or her physical, mental emotional or other faculties, notify his or her supervisor, who is required to maintain the confidentiality of any information regarding an employee's medical condition.

Employees are required to comply fully with this policy as a condition of continued employment with the University. Any violation of this policy may result in disciplinary action, up to and including immediate termination of employment, and will be subject to all of the legal sanctions established by law.
