The Duncan Family Sky Room

Saint Peter's
UNIVERSITY

Ann-Marie Nazzaro, Ph.D. '70

Executive Director, Emerita of the Foundation for Women & Girls with Blood Disorders

As founding executive director – now emerita - of the Foundation for Women & Girls with Blood Disorders (FWGBD), Ann-Marie, with three internationally renowned physicians—an OB/GYN and two hematologists, started FWGBD. Their objective was to educate healthcare providers about the array of blood disorders that directly impact women and girls. Before FWGBD, Ann-Marie led the education team at the National Hemophilia Foundation (now the National Bleeding Disorders Foundation), as education vice president. She continues her public health efforts as a lead volunteer for NJ Together – a consortium of non-profits and faith-based communities. Together they are working to improve policing practices through collaboration with behavioral health professionals. She believes that persons with mental health or addiction challenges are treatable not jailable.

Ann-Marie received her bachelor of arts from Saint Peter's College (now University) in English with education and French minors, among the first 100 women to be accepted into the day college when the University went coed—an experience in community and learning that she continues to count among her most important. After Saint Peter's, she taught for four years in Jersey City at Saint Dominic Academy, then received a master's from the University of Michigan and a Ph.D. from the University of Pennsylvania, focusing on public health education and health communications research. Her career centered in working with non-profits and then in bleeding disorders, after her own son received a diagnosis.

Ann-Marie applauds Saint Peter's as the first higher-education institution in New Jersey to admit women and as a university that continues to educate first-generation students. She does this from the lived experience of being one.

Saint Peter's University is honored to welcome Ann-Marie Nazzaro, Ph.D. '70 as the 2026 Michaelmas speaker.

Saint Peter's University

Alma Mater

Words by Richard I. Nevin

Music by Frederick Joslyn

*Hail, Alma Mater,
Deathless Saint Peter's
Our loving hearts acclaim
Thy resurrected name.*

*Nor war nor time has power
to bind thee,
Thine is the spirit proud and free.
And as year on years comes winging,
We will still be singing praises to thy fame.*

*Hail, Alma Mater,
Hallowed Saint Peter's
With each new day we see
How much we owe to thee.*

*Truth is our guide, we shall not wander,
God is our strength, we shall not fail,
And our love will ever bind us
So that death will find us thine eternally.*
