

*The One Hundred Thirty-Fourth
Commencement of Saint Peter's University*

Monday, May 19, 2025

PNC Bank Arts Center, Holmdel, New Jersey

Message from the President

May 19, 2025

Dear Members of the Class of 2025:

This day is a tribute to you, and what an exceptional cause for celebration it is!

Today you join a legacy of more than 37,000 strong alumni, and I welcome you to the Saint Peter's University alumni family. You have been part of something truly special. You've grown within the only Jesuit university in the State of New Jersey, a community rooted in learning, service and purpose. Now it's your turn to take those values and bring them to life in your own way.

Since stepping into my role as the 23rd president of Saint Peter's University, I have seen firsthand the strength, the spirit and the heart of this remarkable community. That's why today is especially meaningful to me; this is the first commencement I have the honor of celebrating with you as president. To share this moment with the Class of 2025, a class defined by resilience and determination, fills me with deep pride and tremendous hope for the future.

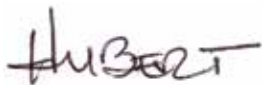

With unwavering determination, you've met adversity, fulfilled your ambitions, and are now prepared to lead with vision and integrity. You've shown us what it means to learn with purpose, lead with compassion and live with intention. And now, as you cross this threshold into new beginnings, I encourage you to remain grounded in the Ignatian values that shaped your time here.

Wherever your journey takes you, whether it is close to home or across the globe, know this: Saint Peter's will always be with you. The relationships you built here, the professors and mentors who believed in you, the late nights, the joyful moments, the breakthroughs big and small, they are all part of your story now.

The world wants to hear your story. It needs your talent, your creativity, your drive and your heart. In the words of Saint Ignatius, now is the time to "go forth and set the world on fire."

Congratulations, Class of 2025. We are so proud of you. Stay connected, visit often and always remember: once a Peacock, always a Peacock.

With pride,

Hubert Benitez, D.D.S., Ph.D.
President
Saint Peter's University

Commencement Address

Marta Costanzo Youth '87 Honorary Degree Recipient at the 2025
Commencement Exercises of Saint Peter's University

Marta Costanzo Youth. Senior Foreign Service Officer. Global Diplomat. Economic Counselor. Saint Peter's University Alumna. Throughout your 38-year career, you have been devoted to promoting peace, supporting prosperity and advancing mutual understanding between the people of the United States and the people of countries around the world. Saint Peter's University is proud to honor you today for your commitment to public service and your exceptional accomplishments in the field of international relations.

The proud daughter of the owner of a Jersey City grocery store, where you worked while attending school, you graduated from Saint Peter's University in 1987 with a Bachelor of Arts in political science and economics. You later pursued graduate studies at the Johns Hopkins University School of Advanced International Studies (SAIS) in Bologna, Italy and Washington, D.C. At Saint Peter's, you began the journey toward your dream of becoming an international diplomat. As a sophomore, you spent a semester in Washington, D.C., interning in the Intelligence and Research Division of the Department of State through The Washington Center Internship Program. In your junior year, you travelled to Italy to study at the University of Florence. There you met with Ambassador Millicent Fenwick H '81, former member of the House of Representatives, and also a Saint Peter's honorary degree recipient. In your senior year, you were named among the "Top 100 College Women in America" by Good Housekeeping, an award that marked the bicentennial anniversary of the U.S. Constitution. In recognition of your academic accomplishments, at your commencement from Saint Peter's thirty-eight years ago, you received the Economics Medal, as well as the Colombian Award and the Italian American Cultural Society Award for Italian Language and Literature Studies.

Since graduating from Saint Peter's, you have pursued an impressive career in global diplomacy that has taken you to posts around the world. Currently you are preparing for your next role as the Deputy Chief of Mission for the U.S. Embassy in Rome, Italy. You most recently served as the Acting Assistant Secretary at the United States Bureau of Population, Refugees, and Migration (PRM), the humanitarian bureau of the State Department. You were previously the Director of Central American Affairs in the Bureau of Western Hemisphere Affairs. Prior assignments have included Director of the Office of Europe, Central Asia and the Americas in PRM; Deputy Chief of Mission at the U.S. Embassy Managua, Nicaragua; and Economic Counselor at the U.S. Embassy in Ottawa, Canada. You also worked at the U.S. Embassy in Quito, Ecuador as Press Attaché, at the U.S. Embassy in Madrid, Spain as a Trade Officer; and at the U.S. Consulate in Chennai, India as a Consular Officer. Additional Washington, D.C. assignments included Country Assistance Coordinator for Russia and Moldova, and Desk Officer for South Africa, Portugal, Malta and Vatican City. You have also been assigned twice to the State Department's Economic and Business Affairs Bureau.

Throughout your far-reaching travels and distinguished career, you have been wholeheartedly and selflessly supported by your devoted husband, Howard, and children, Alessandra and Thomas. For your extraordinary accomplishments as a dedicated and respected global diplomat and public servant - a true woman for others in the Jesuit tradition - Saint Peter's University is proud and privileged to confer upon you, Marta Costanzo Youth '87, the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa.

Faculty Mace

The Saint Peter’s University faculty mace is a symbol of the important role of faculty. It is carried by the president of the Faculty Senate at two annual occasions: the University’s fall Michaelmas ceremony and spring commencement. The mace consists of three parts: the crown, hilt and handle.

The crown, which features a peacock, serves as both the visual and symbolic centerpiece of the mace. In 1930, Rev. Robert Gannon, S.J., chose the peacock to serve as the mascot of what was then a newly reopened Saint Peter’s College following World War I. He chose the peacock as the institution’s symbol in order to reflect the theme of “resurrection and eternal life.” The ancient Greeks taught that the flesh of the peacock did not decay at death, so Fr. Gannon felt that the brightly colored bird also embodied the College’s motto: “IN PERPETUUM.” The metal peacock is noted for its remarkable level of detail. Burnished in high grade nickel silver, it is emblematic of Art Deco style but also serves as a reminder that Jersey City was once the metal arts and ironwork crucible of the region

The sculptural peacock stands astride a 12 cornered block or hilt fashioned from a piece of reclaimed Aleppo pinewood. The 12 corners represent the Apostolic roots of Saint Peter’s Catholic identity. The Aleppo pine used to fashion the hilt comes from Manresa, Spain, in the Catalonia region. It was there that Saint Ignatius of Loyola experienced his famed illumination and saw God in all things. The hilt is emblazoned with the University seal, which symbolizes the Catholic identity and Jesuit mission of the University.

Finally, the handle of the Saint Peter’s faculty mace is fashioned from reclaimed Spanish cedar or cedrela odorata. This piece of wood once grew in the region where Jesuit missionaries first settled (1609) along the banks of the Paraná River in what is now Paraguay.

The faculty mace symbolizes the transformational presence of the Society of Jesus in the old world of Spain and the new worlds of South and North America, from Paraguay to Pavonia.

Alma Mater

*Hail, Alma Mater,
Deathless Saint Peter's
Our loving hearts acclaim
Thy resurrected name.*

*Nor war nor time has power
to bind thee,
Thine is the spirit proud and free.
And as year on year comes winging,
We will still be singing praises to thy fame.*

*Hail, Alma Mater,
Hallowed Saint Peter's
With each new day we see
How much we owe to thee.*

*Truth is our guide, we shall not wander,
God is our strength, we shall not fail,
And our love will ever bind us
So that death will find us thine eternally.*
