Saint Peter's
UNIVERSITY

Edward Hahn Jr., M.D. '04

Chief, Division of Emergency Trauma
Department of Plastic Surgery
Hackensack University Medical Center

Assistant Professor, Department of Plastic Surgery
The Seton Hall – Hackensack Meridian School of Medicine

Edward Hahn Jr., M.D. is a graduate of Saint Peter's University, Class of 2004. He was a double major in biochemistry and chemistry, and took many courses within the biology department as well.

After graduating from Saint Peter's, Dr. Hahn continued his medical education at Rutgers New Jersey Medical School. After graduating at the top of his medical school class, Dr. Hahn was invited to stay at Rutgers to continue his passion for plastic and reconstructive surgery. During his six-year combined general and plastic surgery residency, Dr. Hahn gained extensive experience in the management of traumatic injuries, breast cancer reconstruction, wound management and hand surgery. Following that, he completed a hand, upper extremity and microsurgery fellowship at The University of Connecticut.

Today, Dr. Hahn is the Chief of the Division of Emergency Trauma, Department of Plastic Surgery at Hackensack University Medical Center, where he is also an assistant professor. In this role, Dr. Han relishes the opportunity to teach both medical students and plastic surgery residents in training.

He has published numerous book chapters and journal articles as a leader in his field, presented his research and clinical experiences at several conferences and won numerous awards, including the "Founder's Award" for Best Research Presentation at the New England Hand Society Conference.

Saint Peter's is honored to welcome Edward Hahn Jr., M.D. '04 as the 2025 Michaelmas speaker.

Saint Peter's University

Alma Mater

Words by Richard I. Nevin

Music by Frederick Joslyn

*Hail, Alma Mater,
Deathless Saint Peter's
Our loving hearts acclaim
Thy resurrected name.*

*Nor war nor time has power
to bind thee,
Thine is the spirit proud and free.
And as year on years comes winging,
We will still be singing praises to thy fame.*

*Hail, Alma Mater,
Hallowed Saint Peter's
With each new day we see
How much we owe to thee.*

*Truth is our guide, we shall not wander,
God is our strength, we shall not fail,
And our love will ever bind us
So that death will find us thine eternally.*
