

*The One Hundred Thirty-Fifth
Commencement of Saint Peter's University*

Saturday, May 16, 2026

The Victor R. Yanitelli, S.J. Recreational Life Center

Message from the President

May 16, 2026

Dear Class of 2026, Family and Friends,

Today marks a defining moment; not just a celebration of what students have accomplished, but the beginning of what they are becoming. This is the most important milestone in the first chapter of a professional journey, a moment where years of dedication, growth and perseverance come together to launch our graduates into the world with purpose.

It is a joy to witness our Jesuit values alive in each of our students. On this extraordinary day, we gather as a community of family, friends, faculty and staff, to honor students' journeys. To families and friends, welcome to Saint Peter's University, the place where your loved ones were challenged, discovered their voice, built lasting friendships and grew into the individuals we celebrate today. Welcome to the community that has supported students every step of the way and to the vibrant heart of Jersey City, a place as dynamic and diverse as each of you.

A Jesuit education calls us to something greater. It asks us to embrace cura personalis, to care for the whole person; to pursue Magis, to strive for excellence in all that we do; and to think critically and act ethically in a world that needs your leadership. Graduates, you have already begun to embody these values. Now, as you step forward into your careers or continue your education, carry them with intention. Care deeply for those around you. Lead with integrity. Challenge ideas thoughtfully. And always consider the impact of your actions on others and on the world.

This moment is not an ending; it is a beginning. The path ahead will ask much of you, but it will also offer endless opportunities to make a difference. Trust in what you have learned here and in who you have become. And remember this: no matter where your journey takes you, Saint Peter's will always be your home. This community will always be here to support you, to celebrate your successes and to welcome you back. You now join a proud and powerful network of alumni who share your story and stand ready to walk alongside you.

Class of 2026, we are immensely proud of you. Not only for your achievements, but for your courage, your determination and your willingness to speak with conviction. These qualities will shape the future you are about to build.

Go forward with confidence. Lead with purpose. And never forget where you began. Congratulations, Class of 2026, and always carry your Peacock Pride with you.

Sincerely,

Hubert Benitez, D.D.S., Ph.D.
President

Commencement Speaker & Honorary Degree Recipient

Ije Akunyili, M.D., M.B.A., M.P.A. Chief Medical Officer of Jersey City Medical Center

Ije Akunyili, M.D., M.B.A., M.P.A. is a physician leader, public servant and advocate for health equity who serves as Chief Medical Officer of Jersey City Medical Center, a 348-bed academic medical center and Level II Trauma Center.

In 2023, she became the first Black chief medical officer in the hospital's 141-year history, a milestone that reflects both her personal journey and a broader commitment to expanding opportunity and representation in leadership.

Her connection to Christian and Jesuit values is longstanding. Growing up in Eastern Nigeria, Dr. Akunyili observed her father, a physician, caring for Catholic and Jesuit priests and seminarians—an experience that shaped her view of medicine as a form of service to others, a principle that continues to guide her leadership and family life.

Under her leadership, Jersey City Medical Center has advanced quality and patient safety initiatives, earning national recognition as a Best Hospital for Maternity Care by U.S. News & World Report and Newsweek for 2026. The medical center has also expanded its residency and fellowship programs in rheumatology and gastrointestinal medicine and hospital medicine administration, strengthening the pipeline for future physicians.

Dr. Akunyili is an advocate for community health and access, working to strengthen trust between healthcare institutions and the communities they serve. She was appointed, by the Governor, to the New Jersey State Board of Medical Examiners, and is an elected member of the Harvard Kennedy School Alumni Association Board of Directors.

Her leadership has been recognized nationally, including being named one of the country's "Black Healthcare Leaders to Know" by Becker's Healthcare, as well as receiving the Dr. Gar LaSalle Medical Director of the Year Award and the American College of Emergency Physicians Rising Star Award.

Dr. Akunyili graduated summa cum laude from the University of Pennsylvania (having also earned an M.B.A. from the Wharton School of Business) and attended the University of Maryland School of Medicine. She completed her emergency medicine residency at the McGovern Medical School at UTHealth Houston, and earned a graduate degree in public administration with an emphasis on international development from the John F. Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University.

Today, she is not only a distinguished physician, leader and mentor, but someone whose life reflects the very ideals we celebrate at commencement: service, purpose and the responsibility to use one's gifts to serve others. For this, and in recognition of her stellar career achievements, Saint Peter's University is proud and privileged to confer the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa.

Honorary Degree Recipient

Joseph A. Panepinto, Esq. '66 President & CEO of Panepinto Properties, Inc.

As founder and President of Panepinto Properties, Inc., Joseph A. Panepinto, Esq. '66 has spearheaded a renaissance in Jersey City, the city to which he has dedicated his professional career and his passion. He served as Jersey City Planning Board Attorney (1971-1973), and later as the Jersey City Redevelopment Attorney (1973-1977). During these years, Panepinto was a part of the principal team drafting plans for the future redevelopment of Jersey City.

From the early 1980s to the present, Panepinto Properties purchased and developed mixed-use office, residential and commercial properties. In a separate partnership with Hartz Mountain Industries and Maher Terminals, Panepinto developed the first new office buildings in 30 years at Journal Square. In the early 1990s, Mr. Panepinto added the Jersey City Waterfront Area to the portfolio. In partnership with Ironstate Development, Panepinto Properties developed the Gotham (1999). In partnership with Mack-Cali, Panepinto added Harborside Financial Center Plaza 10 (2002), a magnificent 600,000 square foot office tower built for Charles Schwab & Co. To date, Panepinto Properties has developed over 4.2 million square feet of mixed-use space.

The company's signature properties at Columbus Plaza were built on the site of the PATH subway station on Columbus Boulevard. In total, they include 1,500 luxury residential units, a 150 room hotel, a 40,000 square foot fitness center and spa, a 20,000 square foot food market and a 1,200 car parking garage. Panepinto Properties has also turned its attention to overseas opportunities, most recently completing a 1,900-unit condominium project in Songdo, South Korea.

In addition to his professional achievements, Panepinto has demonstrated a longstanding commitment to civic engagement and philanthropy. In September 2025, he was designated a trustee emeritus at Saint Peter's in recognition of his decades of service to the University, including roles as trustee, regent and advisor on campus planning and real estate. His generous philanthropic legacy at the University includes Panepinto Plaza at the Mac Mahon Student Center and Panepinto Hall, the newest student residence. Panepinto also previously served as a trustee and governing board member of Christ Hospital for two decades.

With a track record built on both insight and passion, Mr. Panepinto has established and nurtured a vibrant company, and at the same time rebuilt the city he loves. Through Panepinto Properties, his passion endures and is the vehicle for the many great plans and dreams he has for the future. For this, and in recognition of his steadfast support of higher education, Saint Peter's University is proud and privileged to confer the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa.

Academic Regalia

For Saint Peter's University, the official colors found in the hood are blue and white. Colored velvet or velveteen binds the hood and indicates the subject to which the degree pertains. For all academic purposes, the colors associated with the various subjects at Saint Peter's University are as follows:

Arts, Humanities, Professional Studies	White
Accounting	Drab
Business and Business Analytics	Drab
Communication	Crimson
Cyber Security	Drab
Data Science	Drab
Education	Light Blue
Finance	Drab
Marketing Science	Drab
Nursing	Apricot
Psychology	Gold
Public Administration	Peacock Blue
Science	Golden Yellow

Faculty Mace

The Saint Peter's University faculty mace is a symbol of the important role of faculty. It is carried by the president of the Faculty Senate at two annual occasions: the University's fall Michaelmas ceremony and spring Commencement. The mace consists of three parts: the crown, hilt and handle.

The crown, which features a peacock, serves as both the visual and symbolic centerpiece of the mace. In 1930, Rev. Robert Gannon, S.J., chose the peacock to serve as the mascot of what was then a newly reopened Saint Peter's College following World War I. He chose the peacock as the institution's symbol in order to reflect the theme of "resurrection and eternal life." The ancient Greeks taught that the flesh of the peacock did not decay at death, so Fr. Gannon felt that the brightly colored bird also embodied the College's motto: "IN PERPETUUM." The metal peacock is noted for its remarkable level of detail. Burnished in high grade nickel silver, it is emblematic of Art Deco style but also serves as a reminder that Jersey City was once the metal arts and ironwork crucible of the region.

The sculptural peacock stands astride a 12 cornered block or hilt fashioned from a piece of reclaimed Aleppo pinewood. The 12 corners represent the Apostolic roots of Saint Peter's Catholic identity. The Aleppo pine used to fashion the hilt comes from Manresa, Spain, in the Catalonia region. It was there that Saint Ignatius of Loyola experienced his famed illumination and saw God in all things. The hilt is emblazoned with the University seal, which symbolizes the Catholic identity and Jesuit mission of the University.

Finally, the handle of the Saint Peter's faculty mace is fashioned from reclaimed Spanish cedar or cedrela odorata. This piece of wood once grew in the region where Jesuit missionaries first settled (1609) along the banks of the Paraná River in what is now Paraguay.

The faculty mace symbolizes the transformational presence of the Society of Jesus in the old world of Spain and the new worlds of South and North America, from Paraguay to Pannonia.

Saint Peter's University Alma Mater

*Hail, Alma Mater,
Deathless Saint Peter's
Our loving hearts acclaim
Thy resurrected name.*

*Nor war nor time has power
to bind thee,
Thine is the spirit proud and free.
And as year on year comes winging,
We will still be singing praises to thy fame.*

*Hail, Alma Mater,
Hallowed Saint Peter's
With each new day we see
How much we owe to thee.*

*Truth is our guide, we shall not wander,
God is our strength, we shall not fail,
And our love will ever bind us
So that death will find us thine eternally.*
