

Saint Peter's University/Caulfield School of Education
Doctor of Education (Ed.D.)
Educational Leadership — Higher Education

Name _____

The Doctor of Education Program (Ed.D.), with a concentration in Educational Leadership - Higher Education, prepares practicing and aspiring higher education professionals to take on a variety of administrative and executive roles within a college or university setting.

	Expected Date Of Completion	Date of Completion	Credits
GE801 Curriculum Development and Instruction			3
GE805 Organizational Behavior and Educational Administration			3
GE807 Statistics I			3
GE809 Research Design and Methods			3
GE811 Qualitative Research Design			3
GE822 Historical Trends in Higher Education			3
GE825 Ethical Foundations and Social Responsibility			3
GE840 Innovative Technology Strategies for the Higher Education Learner			3
GE864 Administration and Governance of Higher Education			3
GE866 Enrollment Management and Marketing			3
GE868 Student Development and Programming			3
GE871 Dissertation Seminar I			3
GE872 Grants, Philanthropy, and Development			3
GE873 Dissertation Seminar II			3
GE874 Finance, Budgeting and Resource Allocation in Higher Education			3
GE876 Accountability: Assessment, Accreditation and Institutional Research			3
GE890 Dissertation Advisement each semester after all course work is completed and until dissertation is successfully defended. Students will enroll in the one-credit Dissertation Advisement for 4 semesters. After that, if the dissertation is not completed, they must enroll in the three-credit Dissertation Advisement course, until the dissertation is completed.			1 or 3

Program Total: 48 Credits

Advisor: _____ Student: _____

Date: _____ Date: _____