

*The One Hundred Thirty-Third
Commencement of Saint Peter's University*

Friday, May 17, 2024

Message

from the President

May 17, 2024

Dear Members of the Class of 2024:

Traditionally in this message over the past 17 commencements, I have reminded our graduating students to recognize and appreciate all they have accomplished: objectives achieved and obstacles overcome. Indeed, graduation was a milestone moment in their scholastic lives, just as it is in yours today. It also represents a threshold to what lies ahead, your next exciting adventures, whatever they may be. As your journey continues, I am confident that your Jesuit education and Ignatian values have prepared you well to excel intellectually, lead ethically, serve compassionately and promote justice along whatever path you choose as you continue to be "men and women for others."

This year, however, is special for me too. I am also reaching a milestone moment, since it is my final commencement before I retire from the presidency. I am honored to share this special celebration with you, as we all begin the next chapters of our lives.

Another tradition for me is reminding our graduates that today you join our Peacock family of more than 36,000 alumni. I am so proud of each of you and all you have achieved at Saint Peter's. Please remember to stay in touch with alma mater so that we can continue to celebrate your successes and your joys. And don't forget to return for a visit! I promise you I'll do the same. On behalf of everyone in the Saint Peter's University community, congratulations!

Now, for the final time before I retire and, like you, step away from the familiar daily life of our University, it is my privilege to remind you all to pursue opportunities and accept challenges that inspire your imagination while igniting and fanning the flames of your spirit so that, in the words of Saint Ignatius, you "go forth and set the world on fire."

Sincerely,

Eugene J. Cornacchia, Ph.D.
President

Commencement Address

Eugene J. Cornacchia, Ph.D.

Eugene J. Cornacchia, Ph.D., is the 22nd president of Saint Peter's University, the longest-serving president in the University's history. He began his term as the first lay president in 2007 and has had a distinguished tenure marked by transformative leadership, unwavering dedication and a fierce commitment to academic excellence and the Jesuit mission.

During his time as president he guided the University through a period of growth, innovation and unparalleled progress. Notable institutional triumphs include the achievement of university status and national recognition by U.S. News & World Report, the American Council on Education (ACE) and Excelencia in Education, among others.

On the academic front, his tenure saw the strategic expansion of academic programs resulting in a 50 percent increase in graduate students, the initiation of the institution's first doctoral programs and the establishment of three of the four schools at the University including the Frank J. Guarini School of Business, a School of Nursing and the Caulfield School of Education.

In terms of the physical campus, he oversaw the construction of the Mac Mahon Student Center, Panepinto Hall, the creation of the Run Baby Run Arena, the addition of the Digital Research Commons in the Theresa and Edward O'Toole Library, and the creation of the STEM Empowerment Center, among many other projects.

Dr. Cornacchia served as a brand champion when the University was thrust into the national and international spotlight following the historic run of the men's basketball team to the Elite Eight in the NCAA Tournament in 2022. He also successfully navigated the institution through the COVID-19 pandemic with a focus on the health and safety of the community as well as the continuity of education.

In addition, Dr. Cornacchia has set fundraising records, securing $64.7 million for Students at the Center: The Campaign for Saint Peter's University in 2014. The University's latest campaign, Peacocks Rise: The Campaign for Saint Peter's University, celebrated its public launch in December 2022 with $70 million secured during its quiet phase alone, breaking previous records. Beyond fundraising success, the University also secured more than $25 million in federal grants during Dr. Cornacchia's tenure.

Dr. Cornacchia attended Fordham University and earned a bachelor's degree in political science in 1976, a master's degree in political science in 1979 and a Ph.D. in political science in 1985. Prior to becoming president of Saint Peter's and after 20 years of teaching at the University, Dr. Cornacchia served as academic dean and subsequently as provost and vice president for academic affairs.

Dr. Cornacchia and his wife, AnnMarie, have two daughters, Lauren and Katherine, and three grandchildren, Ava, Zachary and Maximilian.

For his deep and admirable commitment to the advancement of education and his unparalleled achievements on behalf of Saint Peter's University and its students - a true "man for others" in the Jesuit tradition - Saint Peter's University is proud and privileged to confer upon Eugene J. Cornacchia, Ph.D., the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa.

Academic Regalia

For Saint Peter's University, the official colors found in the hood are blue and white. Colored velvet or velveteen binds the hood and indicates the subject to which the degree pertains. For all academic purposes, the colors associated with the various subjects at Saint Peter's University are as follows:

Arts, Humanities, Professional Studies	White
Accounting	Drab
Business and Business Analytics	Drab
Communication	Crimson
Cyber Security	Drab
Data Science	Drab
Education	Light Blue
Finance	Drab
Marketing Science	Drab
Nursing	Apricot
Psychology	Gold
Public Administration	Peacock Blue
Science	Golden Yellow

Faculty Mace

The Saint Peter's University faculty mace is a symbol of the important role of faculty. It is carried by the president of the Faculty Senate at two annual occasions: the University's fall Michaelmas ceremony and spring commencement. The mace consists of three parts: the crown, hilt and handle.

The crown, which features a peacock, serves as both the visual and symbolic centerpiece of the mace. In 1930, Rev. Robert Gannon, S.J., chose the peacock to serve as the mascot of what was then a newly reopened Saint Peter's College following World War I. He chose the peacock as the institution's symbol in order to reflect the theme of "resurrection and eternal life." The ancient Greeks taught that the flesh of the peacock did not decay at death, so Fr. Gannon felt that the brightly colored bird also embodied the College's motto: "IN PERPETUUM." The metal peacock is noted for its remarkable level of detail. Burnished in high grade nickel silver, it is emblematic of Art Deco style but also serves as a reminder that Jersey City was once the metal arts and ironwork crucible of the region.

The sculptural peacock stands astride a 12 cornered block or hilt fashioned from a piece of reclaimed Aleppo pinewood. The 12 corners represent the Apostolic roots of Saint Peter's Catholic identity. The Aleppo pine used to fashion the hilt comes from Manresa, Spain, in the Catalonia region. It was there that Saint Ignatius of Loyola experienced his famed illumination and saw God in all things. The hilt is emblazoned with the University seal, which symbolizes the Catholic identity and Jesuit mission of the University.

Finally, the handle of the Saint Peter's faculty mace is fashioned from reclaimed Spanish cedar or cedrela odorata. This piece of wood once grew in the region where Jesuit missionaries first settled (1609) along the banks of the Paraná River in what is now Paraguay.

The faculty mace symbolizes the transformational presence of the Society of Jesus in the old world of Spain and the new worlds of South and North America, from Paraguay to Pavonia.

Saint Peter's University

Alma Mater

Hail, Alma Mater,

Deathless Saint Peter's

Our loving hearts acclaim

Thy resurrected name.

Nor war nor time has power

to bind thee,

Thine is the spirit proud and free.

And as year on year comes winging,

We will still be singing praises to thy fame.

Hail, Alma Mater,

Hallowed Saint Peter's

With each new day we see

How much we owe to thee.

Truth is our guide, we shall not wander,

God is our strength, we shall not fail,

And our love will ever bind us

So that death will find us thine eternally.
