

ECUMENICAL LOYALTIES: READING THE LUMINARIES OF THE BLACK FREEDOM MOVEMENT AT SAINT PETER'S COLLEGE

A MULTIMEDIA EVENT TO COMMEMORATE THE WORK OF BLACK ACTIVISTS, ARTISTS, AND PUBLIC SERVANTS WHO SHARED THEIR VISIONS OF A NEW WORLD WITH THE SAINT PETER'S COMMUNITY, FROM 1964-1975.

MONDAY, 28 FEBRUARY
12PM
VIA ZOOM

REGISTER NOW

A Saint Peter's University Sesquicentennial Signature Event in Honor of Black History Month

Brought to you by the History Department, The Theresa and Edward O'Toole Library, The Hon. Frank J. Guarini Center for Community Memory, and The Office of Partnerships and Institutional Research

In association with the National Council of Teachers of English African American Read-In

Sponsored by Humanities Research for the Public Good from The Council of Independent Colleges and The Hudson County Office of Cultural & Heritage Affairs/Tourism Development

For more information contact jjohnson5@saintpeters.edu

