

On Tuesday, February 2, Saint Peter's University will commemorate the 51st anniversary of the execution of Rev. Alfred Delp, S.J. by the Nazis for his resistance to the German Reich and the Nazi Party with two events.

3:30 p.m. – Pope Lecture Hall

Inaugural Alfred Delp, S.J. Lecture with Anne Cubilie, Ph.D., associate provost at The University of Central Washington and former dean of their William O. Douglas Honors College - Dr. Cubilie's work is a model of engaged scholarship. Her 2005 book, Women Witnessing Terror: Testimony and the Cultural Politics of Human Rights grew out of her own experiences in Badakhshan, Afghanistan as a United Nations field worker and investigator. Dr. Cubilie went on to serve as a UN program officer for 15 years.

7:00 p.m. – St. Aedan's: The Saint Peter's University Church

A special Arts on Bergen performance - The Saint Peter's University Chamber Orchestra and special guests, under the direction of University Director of Music Joseph Legaspi, will perform Bach's Ich habe genug BWV 82 and John Carter's Cantata. The Orchestra will be joined by Joy Tamayo, soprano; Katrina Saptorsantos, soprano; Patty Lazzara, flute; Alejandro Consolacion, II, organ continuo, piano, and; Frederick Golz, harpsichord.

Please join us for these important and inspiring inaugural events in commemoration of the life and witness of a heroic Jesuit public intellectual. For more information, call (201) 761-6020.

**Co-sponsored by the Office of the Provost, Campus Ministry, The Dorothy Day Social Justice House and the Program in Social Justice and the Department of Political Science.

Saint Peter's
UNIVERSITY