

“UNMASKED! COVID-19 REVEALS DEMAND FOR PUBLIC SECTOR LEADERSHIP” WEBINAR

Tuesday, May 25 at 6:00 p.m.

Public servants are playing a leading role in response to the COVID-19 crisis. From healthcare workers keeping medical systems functioning to civil servants finding ways to channel unprecedented economic stimulus spending and managing severe spikes in unemployment, the pandemic has transformed the public sector. Join Saint Peter's faculty and a panel of leading experts to learn how you can make a difference in your community.

Panelists:

Andrea Martinez-Mejia, M.A., M.P.A.
Chief of Staff, NJ Department of Health

In her current roles, Mrs. Martinez- Mejia has oversight of the executive management team and a combined State/Federal budget of $2.8 billion. Before joining the Department, she served as Coordinator of Community Health Services for the City of Trenton's Department of Health and Human Services and has extensive experience in government.

Colleen Schulz Eskow, Deputy Chief of Staff, NJ Department of Education

Ms. Schulz Eskow is the COVID Lead for the New Jersey Department of Education. She provides direction and guidance on all COVID related issues and is a liaison with the New Jersey Department of Health on all education related issues.

David Bander, Executive Director of the Policy Office at the NJ Department of Labor and Workforce Development

Mr. Bander previously worked as an organizer for 1199 SEIU and an attorney at a union-side labor and employment law firm in central New Jersey. He is a graduate of the University of Virginia and Vanderbilt University School of Law.

Register

Saint Peter's
UNIVERSITY

The Jesuit University of New Jersey