

Initial Schedule for Black History Month
African Studies Program

- Feb. 1 Noon Flag Raising - Flagpole by Bridge
Students, Faculty, Staff and Administrators
- Feb. 1 4:00 pm opening
Black Photo Exhibit Opening
Gallery – Fifth Floor of the Mac Mahon Student Center
Exhibit runs until February 8.
- Feb. 7 Noon
“We Shall See in '83: African Americans and the Transformation of Chicago, 1983-1987,” presented by Dr. Dwayne Williams, professor of history at Georgetown University
McIntyre Conference Center A
Sponsored by Office of Diversity, Equity & Inclusion; contact
mmarcillo@saintpeters.edu
- Feb. 7 6:30 pm
Art Show
McIntyre Conference Center
Sponsored by Black Action Committee Contact: cledbetter15@saintpeters.edu
- Feb. 8 Noon
Power, Perils and Possibilities: The Future of Organized Labor
McIntyre Conference Center A
Noon
Sponsored by Office of Diversity, Equity & Inclusion; contact
mmarcillo@saintpeters.edu
- Feb. 15 11:00
Black Absorbs All Colors: The African American Melting Pot in the United States
Roy Irving Theatre
Fatima Shaik, Department of Communication and Media Culture
Bring your classes - Confirm with dsurrey@saintpeters.edu
- Feb. 15 7:00 pm
Movement (open Mic)
Pope Lecture Hall
Black Action Committee
Contact: cledbetter15@saintpeters.edu
- Feb. 21 1:00 pm
#BeyondWoke: Meditations on Black History, Culture, and Consciousness
John Johnson, Ph.D. – History Department
McIntyre Conference Center
Ferguson. Baltimore. Flint. Charlottesville. In these and other cities we have witnessed racial confrontations that have roused a generation of African Americans to call out racist acts and confront White Supremacy in its myriad forms. The sounding call is to Stay Woke. This talk and conversation will consider Woke as a paradigm of social awareness, and its place in long arc of American political and cultural history.
Bring your classes - Confirm with dsurrey@saintpeters.edu
- Feb. 27 11:00 a.m.
new date and time
“Exclusive Immigration Policies,” presented by Amir Billups '08, history teacher for Newark public schools
Student Center 5th Floor
Bring your classes - Confirm with dsurrey@saintpeters.edu

Initial Schedule for Black History Month
African Studies Program

Feb. 28 7 pm

An Evening with Dick Gregory; David Surrey, Ph.D., professor of sociology and urban studies and director of faculty development, presents clips and a recollection of when he drove with Dick Gregory and three other students from Defiance, Ohio to Columbus, Ohio in the middle of the night.

Dorm Location TBD

Contact dsurrey@saintpeters.edu

Information Sessions for Africana Studies

For more information, please contact africanastudies@saintpeters.edu

Information Sessions for African Studies Minors

Here are the dates and locations for the Africana Studies information sessions:

Thursday, February 1, - 11 am - 3 pm - First floor of Student Center

Tuesday, February 13 - 11 am - 3 pm - Pete's Place

Friday, February 23, 11 am - 3 pm - Second floor of Student Center

Tuesday, February 27- 11 am - 3 pm - Pete's Place